IACT and CIMA invite you to their annual Southern Region Winter Economic Briefing and Outlook on the above date.

Dr Loretta O’Sullivan will give a talk on the economic outlook for 2020.

Loretta is Group Chief Economist at Bank of Ireland. She heads up the Economic Research Unit and is responsible for economic analysis, including commentary, forecasts and research for various Group stakeholders and customers. She joined the Group from the Central Bank of Ireland, where she held the position of Senior Economist within the Monetary Policy & International Relations Division. Prior to that, she was a Senior Economist at the Department of Finance, during which time she was seconded for two years to the European Commission’s Economic and Financial Affairs Directorate in Brussels.

Loretta holds a Ph.D. in Economics from Trinity College Dublin, an MA in Policy, Management and Government from the University of York, and a BA (Mod) in Economics and Social Studies from Trinity College Dublin.

This event has attracted high numbers over the years and the room has a capacity limit. Therefore, places will be served on a “first come first served” basis. Please confirm attendance to Michele Fogarty at info@treasurers.ie
